

THE NEWNAN FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SHEPHERD

NOVEMBER 2023

Family and Friends of Newnan FUMC,

As the brilliant tapestry of autumn unfurls around us and the chill in the air deepens, we find ourselves on the threshold of a season dedicated to gratitude, reflection, and togetherness. We begin November with gratitude for those we have lost from our community this year on All Saints' Sunday, and then we conclude the month with Thanksgiving Day.

Ben Rector has a song called, "The Thanksgiving Song." In it, he captures the essence of the holiday with his chorus:

*"So fill your plate and fill your drink, and fill this house with family,
The kind of love a thousand miles can't wash away,
'Cause the older that I get, I see that life is short and bittersweet,
Thank God for this Thanksgiving Day."*

The act of filling our plates and sharing a meal with loved ones is more than just a tradition; it's a symbol of abundance, generosity, and the warmth that comes from gathering together. Of course, in every season of our lives, we are called to give thanks, not only for the joys and abundance but also for the challenges that strengthen our faith. Paul writes that same message in his earliest letter: "Be cheerful no matter what; pray all the time; thank God no matter what happens" (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

This Thanksgiving, as we gather with family and friends, I hope you will cherish these moments and be thankful for the love and connection that sustain us through the ups and downs of life's journey. Let us fill our plates and fill our homes with the love of family and friends, all while giving thanks to the One who blesses us abundantly.

May your Thanksgiving be filled with warmth, love, and gratitude. Thank God for this Thanksgiving Day, and may it be a time of reflection, joy, and spiritual renewal for you and your loved ones.

We also give thanks for our new members: Carol Crook & Ezequiel Vargas, and for the baptism of Chip Cunningham.

P.S. If you have not yet turned in a pledge of giving for the coming year, there is still time! Please be sure to do so. Simply go to our website at newnanfumc.org/give and click on the Pledge link. We also have hard copies available at the church. Email Owen Lambert with any questions. for Children & Adults

For October, we were asked by One Roof to collect cereal. During the drop-off at One Roof, our donations filled 5 shopping carts Thank you for your continued support and generosity.

FAITH & BLUE

On October 4th, we gathered together to celebrate our hometown heroes at our annual Faith & Blue dinner. We enjoyed a great evening of fellowship and food together with our local law enforcement.

RISE AGAINST HUNGER®

"Then those who are righteous will reply to him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink?...'"

"Then the king will reply to them, 'I assure you that when you have done it for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you have done it for me.'" -Matthew 25:37, 40 CEB

For those who don't have enough, acute hunger and malnutrition are an everyday reality. Almost half of all childhood deaths worldwide occur in children with malnutrition. A lack of proper nutrients negatively affects the development of children, and hunger also contributes to greater difficulty for families to lead active, healthy lives and provide for their loved ones. Because of this acute need and our Christian calling to love our neighbors, we are grateful for the opportunity for our church to serve alongside Rise Against Hunger, an organization dedicated to alleviating hunger worldwide. We want to give a huge thank-you to all of the volunteers that showed up for our Rise Against Hunger meal packing event on Thursday, October 26th! We had over 110 volunteers present for the event, and we were able to pack 15,120 nutritious, shelf-stable meals to be shared with those experiencing hunger around the world.

It was a wonderful event that was a vision of the body of Christ at work- laughter and joyful conversation between folks packing the meals; the more youthful and energetic runners sprinting to bring the supplies over to the bag sealers; the veteran servants sealing the bags and packing them to be sent out. When generations serve together to love our neighbors, God smiles.

We are grateful for the success of this event, and plan to do another packing next year!

-Rev. Connor Bell

Thank you God for the tremendous sacrifices made by those who have gone before us. Bless the memories of your saints, God. May we learn how to walk wisely from their examples of faith, dedication, worship, and love. Amen.

NEWNAN FIRST UMC MUSIC MINISTRY

Caitlyn Dixon, Minister of Music | cdixon@newnanfumc.org | 770.253.7400 x205

Hello all!

As many of you know, I was out for a week in October traveling in Italy on a “trial trip” with a company that could potentially be the host of the choir’s next international adventure. This week was packed with adventures in Siena, Montalcino, Pienza, Montepulciano, Florence, and Rome. Over the course of the week, I had the opportunity to visit some of the most stunning places of worship including the Siena Cathedral, the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore in Florence, and St. Peter’s Basilica at the Vatican. Each of these establishments is an immaculate force of architecture, and I feel so blessed to have had the opportunity to experience each of these places during the journey.

However, sitting amongst the elaborate marble structures, surrounded by some of the most ornate stained glass and massive Gothic frescos of medieval times, it’s easy to get caught up in the “pomp and circumstance” of it all. You’re in a space where you can’t help but feel closer to God, but also see the overly ornate façades and wonder if it was really money and effort well spent in times where the needs of the people were so much more than an elaborately adorned building.

We’re blessed to have such a beautiful house of worship here in Newnan, and I’m so grateful for the work Dawn did in preparing the Religion and Art in Newnan presentation last month. This project, which highlighted the beautiful stained glass that we’re surrounded with every week, was a magnificent way to honor the space we worship in every week. While we take in these different architectural beauties, whether they be those in another country or those close to home, we have to remind ourself that the church is not a building. As the hands and feet of Christ, it is our human selves that must be the church.

This reminder couldn’t have come at a more perfect time as we wrap up our month of gratitude for the gifts God has so generously given to us. For me, I am constantly feeling so grateful for everything God has blessed me with in bringing me to Newnan FUMC. I’ve met some of the most wonderful people, and I get to make music all week long in praise to God - How cool is my job?!?!

It seems hard to realize that November is already upon us and advent is around the corner. I cannot wait for all of the music that the choirs and handbell ensembles will share over the coming Advent season. I hope it is a reminder for each of you that, no matter where you worship or how you worship, God is in our midst.

Soli Deo Gloria,
Caitie

Paul Mosley, Director of Youth Ministries | pmosley@newnanfumc.org | 770.253.7400 (x219)

We have been having a good fall semester. Lots of great learning and fun. Our confirmation class got off to a great start with a wonderful retreat. It was a pleasure to get to know these wonderful young people and begin this milestone journey with them as they dive into their story and how God has played a major role in it. We have finished up two of our three series this semester. The first, Habits, guided us through the process of creating daily habits in various aspects of our life to connect with God, from brand new habits to new perspectives on old ones. Our second series, Direct Message, focused on prayer and opened up new understandings to how we approach prayer and what we say. We have one more series, and some of our biggest events of the Fall Semester still ahead of us, so we are so excited to have a great rest of the year!

Upcoming Events:

November 17-19: UTH Fall Retreat @ Camp Glisson

December 3: UTH Christmas Party

Underrated Series: Have you ever felt underrated or underestimated because of your age? It's a terrible feeling— as if, because you're still a teenager, you can't get this life or faith thing right yet. In this series, as we look at what was said to a young church leader named Timothy, we'll find that when it comes to our faith, instead of being underrated, we can own it.

JOY TREE | Begins November 12th

You are invited to be a part of Joy Tree this year! Each November-December, NFUMC collects a list of names of foster children in the community, detailing a Christmas list of toys and clothing needs. These needs are placed on tags, and members of our congregation are invited to shop for these items as a way to help provide a blessing for these children during the Christmas season. Tags can be taken from the tree in the Narthex of the sanctuary :

Drop-off for items will be in the Annex Hall on the following dates:

Sunday, December 3rd, 9:30-12:30pm

Friday, December 8th, 4:00-6:00pm

Saturday, December 9th, 10:00-12:00pm

Sunday, December 10th, 9:30-12:30pm

Please email Linda McCurdy (lindarmccurdy@numail.org) or Kathy Ferguson (kmf2650@yahoo.com) with any questions.
