NEW YEAR'S DAY WORSHIP SERVICE

10:00am

Dear Newnan FUMC,

Recently, I found myself sitting in a waiting room with a TV. As you can probably imagine at this time of year, the TV was playing some Christmas rom-com. It seemed to be a fish-out-of-water story about a city girl who gets stranded in the middle of the country around Christmastime. She meets a handsome stranger from this small town and by the end, they fall in love!

In all honesty, I didn't watch much of the movie. I knew the ending simply because it was a Christmas movie on the Hallmark channel. For those of you who may not be caught up, the Hallmark Christmas movie industry has grown substantially. The demand for holiday heart-warmers is very high. In an article for Forbes, Toni Fitzgerald analyzes the reasoning behind these familiar tales. She says, "Hallmark movies' familiar structure and predictable outcomes are a strength at this time. While you can't control what's happening around you, you can predict that the heroine will wind up with the hero at the end." Human beings love familiar structures. In the day-to-day of life, we have gradually come to need some aspect that we can count on. For some, it is a Hallmark movie.

Christmas is not unlike a Hallmark movie in its predictability. Christmas and Advent occur each year. There are always Christmas pageants, carol concerts, and Christmas Eve candlelight worship services. But in that ritual, there is deep meaning. We need the Christian calendar to mark our days, to know what to expect, and to remind us of the miraculous narrative of God in the world.

On Christmas Eve, we will read the story from Luke 2. We read it every year. Joseph and Mary will travel to Bethlehem like they always do. There won't be any room in the inn, just like last year. Jesus will be born and placed in a manger. And the angels will notify the shepherds. You've heard this story before. But there is a big difference this year. YOU are different. Your life has changed. Things are not the same as when you heard this story on December 24, 2021.

How is God going to affect you this year? How is God going to use this magnificent story and moment in history to impact your life this December? I hope that you let God in this season. I hope you allow the incarnation of God to take hold. And I pray that the birth of God-as-human will guide you to a great joy and hope that you've not yet known.

I also would like to welcome our new members from November: Susan Miller, Karen Moseley, Chuck and Terri Anderson, Jennifer Tolbert, Anna Jean Gaissert, John and Emily Evans with Rachel and Matthew, Boyd and Pat McBurnett. May they find a unique and gracious home here at Newnan FUMC.

Grace and Peace,
Andrew

JOY TREE

You are invited to be a part of Joy Tree this year! Each November-December, NFUMC collects a list of names of foster children in the community, detailing a Christmas list of toys and clothing needs. These needs are placed on tags, and members of our congregation are invited to shop for these items as a way to help provide a blessing for these children during the Christmas season.

Tags can be taken from the tree in the Narthex of the sanctuary :

Drop-off for items will be in the Annex hall on the following dates:

Sunday, Dec 4th, 9:30-12:30pm
Friday, December 9th, 4:00-6:00pm
Saturday, December 10, 10:00-12:00pm
Sunday, December 11, 9:30-12:30pm

Our Early Response Team (ERT) from the church served during the week of November 14th-18th to assist in relief efforts following the damage from Hurricane Ian. Wonderful men and women from our congregation and a few others joined together to caravan down to Port Orange, Florida, where they stayed at a local church and traveled each day to worksites to assist homeowners in need. The work crews were divided into two teams, and their work ranged from mucking out homes damaged by flooding, removing damaged sheetrock and hardwood floors, removing debris and felled trees from yards, and so much more. More information and photos are on page 4.

We are so grateful for these servants taking up our call to be the hands and feet of Christ to those affected by this natural disaster. Our prayers are with those impacted by Hurricane Ian who still has many needs unmet. If you are interested in being a part of our ERT team and joining in the work that they do, sign up on our website at

2023 Missions Trip to Peru

Mission Trip to Peru- sign up if you are interested!

Newnan First UMC is taking a mission group to Peru in early 2023! For years, our congregation has partnered financially with Global Partners in Life, an organization dedicated to meeting the humanitarian, educational, and medical needs of children, youth, young adults, and widows globally.

Details for the trip will be forthcoming, but we need to make sure that we have the interest for the trip to be viable. If you are interested in learning more about serving with us in Peru in the Spring, please sign up using the QR code or you can email Connor Bell your name, cell phone number so that we can add you to our interest list! Connor Bell: cbell@newnanfumc.org

ADVENT BAGS FOR SHUT-INS

Advent Bag packing was held on November 16th in which we wrapped and packed gifts for our shut-ins. Thank you to everyone who came to support and deliver these gifts for this important mission.

ERT Trip to Port Orange, Florida

On Monday, November 14th, our Early Response Team (ERT) traveled to Port Orange, Florida where they were dispatched to assist in Hurricane Ian and Nicole clean-up. Covenant UMC hosted our team while they were there to assist local homeowners with various projects. The team was able to assist with yard/debris clean-up, removing a hardwood floor and carpeting that had been damaged and remove sheetrock that had been compromised by the flood waters. Our team members were Ted Burnett, Greg Oothoudt, Donald and Terri Sprayberry, Ron and Charlene Hall, Jeri Burnette, Larry Lewis, Carter West, Bill Pound, Wes Cato, Eric Harlan and Dianne Glenn. Thank you for your thoughts, prayers and support while we have been fulfilling our mission of being the hands and feet of Christ.

On the Friday before Thanksgiving, our 4yr and Kindergarten classes presented a program called A Thanksgiving Celebration. We invited the parents and families of our students to celebrate with us!

During the Christmas Season, we focus on Jesus and His birth. Pastor Andrew visits our classes and reads The Christmas Story to our children. We have a birthday party for Jesus in our classes on our last day of school before Christmas break. Our Kindergarten class is going to Barnes and Noble to perform some Christmas songs during the Carnegie Library Book Fair hosted at Barnes and Noble. From all of us at the Preschool to all of you, we wish you a very MERRY CHRISTMAS!!

Fall Retreat was a wonderful experience in breaking out of the regular busyness of life and retreating to find the Lord. We discussed each student's YOU Effect: the impact they have on the people and the world around them. During the weekend, each student learned that they have more of an effect than they think, that having a big effect starts with a small group, and that our lost influence doesn't have to stay lost. We are Christ's hands and feet to the world, and our job is to use our Influence in a way that leads others to Him and lifts one another up. Our students really connected with our guest speaker, Blake Shuler, and the Bound Worship Team did a fabulous job leading us in worship each session. On top of all of this we also played lots of basketball, ziplined, ate great food, and became closer friends. We can't wait for the next trip with UTH at Newnan First UMC!

NEWNAN FUMC BUILDINGS & GROUNDS

NEW PLAYGROUND MURAL

Our playground is awesome, and the children are loving it, but one last thing needed to be done to complete the project. The mural on the wall adjacent to the playground (which is a part of the "Old Matrix" building) needed to be updated.

Owen Lambert, asked Kirby Arnall for permission on behalf of the church, to paint the wall. He graciously agreed, and we hired local artist, Amber Stidham, to design and paint a beautiful scenic mural. The Board of Trustees generously sponsored the financing of the project. The mural is complete and is a beautiful addition to the playground area for our children. Next time you walk by the playground, take a look at our wall!

A BIG thank you to all of the above mentioned people for their support!

Children will enjoy the playground for years to come!

Each year, there is a team of amazing volunteers who prepare our church for the Advent Season by decorating the church. The photos here only reflect the sanctuary, however the entire church is lovingly decorated for the season. We are grateful for all of our saints who work behind the scenes here at Newnan First! A special thank you to our youth for bringing out all of the many boxes that hold our holiday décor.

Charitable Contributions and Year End: What It Means for You and the Church.

Checks that are written, mailed, and postmarked in 2022 will be deductible in 2022 though they are not received by the church until the first week of 2023. The deadline for contributions received in the mail postmarked by December 31, 2022, is January 7, 2023. Any contributions received after this date will be applied to 2023.

Year-end contribution statements will be mailed and postmarked no later than January 31, 2023.

If you are donating stock, please allow at least three weeks for the funds to be transferred to the church by December 31st or you may miss all the above deadlines! If the deadlines are missed, your stock contribution will be applied to 2023.
