JUNE 26

What's Left When All Seems Lost?

(1 Kings 19:9-21)

Add to the list of things I don't do so well the act (or the art) of saying goodbye. It's not that I haven't had enough practice. But practice doesn't always make perfect, and practice doesn't always make difficult tasks easy. And it's not that I don't realize that endings must, of necessity, precede new beginnings. I do know that. It's just that grief is a painful reality that won't go away quickly because we wish that it would. Relationships are built slowly and carefully (and prayerfully) over time with many words and many more caring interactions. When the time comes for those relationships to change, folks don't just click their heels together, spin around three times, snap their fingers, and enter a new dimension of reality. Goodbyes are hard.

So, let me try something that is not quite as hard...saying Thank You! Where to start? At the beginning, of course...

-Thank You for receiving me so graciously in June of 2017. At the time, most of you did not know me from Adam's house cat (or Eve's yard dog). And I knew very little about Newnan, Georgia or the Newnan First United Methodist Church (even though I grew up in Southwest Atlanta, not too far from here). I was all set, or so I thought, to return to the Mountain Park UMC for year nine. But then the caller i.d. on my cell-phone said Coy Hinton, my District Superintendent, and everything changed. I will always be grateful for your warm, and ongoing welcome to this great Church.

-And thank you, too, for the way you opened your hearts and your arms to embrace my incredible wife, Mickey. You helped her to find places to worship, study, and serve. And I deeply appreciate all the ways that you have included her in the life of NFUMC.

-Thank You for allowing me to share so many of the significant moments in your lives...times of great sorrow, times of great joy, and all of the ordinary times as well. You have extended to me the high and holy privilege of walking beside you. And for that, I'll be eternally grateful.

-Thank You for all of your kind and encouraging words since the announcement of my retirement was made. Faster than a speeding bullet, that's how quickly forty-six years of ordained ministry have passed for me. It is with mixed emotions that Mickey and I anticipate the page turning of the next chapter.

-And Thank You for the excitement you have evidenced since learning that your next Senior Pastor would be the Rev. Andrew Chappell. It is not yet a common happening in our system for an Associate Pastor to become the Senior Pastor. But in regard to NFUMC I think that it is an awesome thing! Andrew and Adair will be a huge blessing to this community and to our Community of Faith. There are great days ahead!

To paraphrase the Apostle Paul, "I give THANKS to GOD for all my remembrances, all my recollections of you!"

Grace and Peace!

Rev. Charles Robinson

MISSION SUNDAY

JUNE 19 | FOOD DRIVE

Our June Mission Ministry is a food drive to support ONE ROOF Ministry's Food Pantry. ONE ROOF is asking for: Pasta & Pasta sauce, Mac & Cheese, Oatmeal, Canned Tuna, Cereal, and Juice boxes.

Donations can be dropped off in the Gathering Room throughout the month and on June 19, we will bring the food to the altar for a prayer over the mission and those who will benefit from your generosity.

Thank you for generosity during our May Mission Clothing Drive! We collected enough donations that it took 2 trips to bring it to ONE ROOF Ministries.

NFUMC's Emergency Response Team (ERT) training day on chainsaw safety and use. Members of the ERT team started the morning in a classroom and finished with on-site training.

NEWNAN FIRST'S UTH IN ACTION

The Newnan High School National Honors Society collected socks for Bags of Hope. Paul Mosley, Betsy Conoly, and Beth Ellison from Cancer Treatment Centers of America worked with the youth on this project. This summer, Newnan First's UTH will continue their ministry work with several projects for Bags of Hope and other local Mission Ministries.

NEWNAN FIRST UMC MUSIC MINISTRY

David Kinrade, Minister of Music | dkinrade@newnanfumc.org | 770.253.7400 (x205)

Thank you!

Who would have thought that receiving a phone call from a preacher named Art O’Neil on a hot summer day forty years ago would change my life forever? JoAn, my then fiancé, and I had just finished a day of detasseling corn, when Art called. He invited us down to Newnan for an interview, so a week later, we drove to Georgia in my un-air-conditioned car, and the rest is history. Nine pastors and countless singers later, forty years have come and gone; and what an amazing forty years it has been! I will be forever grateful to Newnan First United Methodist Church and the Newnan community for providing a place for my family and me to call “home.” Thank you for giving me time to learn and grow as we worked in ministry together. For all those with whom I have had the honor to work with, I am grateful. I look forward to seeing all that God has in store for our church and its continued ministry here in Newnan and around the world. Keep singing!

Soli Deo Gloria (Glory to God alone) - David Kinrade

On Saturday, June 4, twenty-three members of our Youth Choir will depart on their 2022 Tour to Colorado. Please be in prayer for our youth and chaperones as they lead worship in two churches and a retirement community throughout the week. They will also be singing the National Anthem for a Rocky Mountain Vibes game.

This year’s chaperones will be David Kinrade, Bonnie Krider, Paul Mosley, Matt Rossey, Kristy Rossey, and Laurie Fambro. Please thank them for taking time apart to work with our youth.

You will not want to miss our amazing Youth Choir as they will lead worship in our sanctuary for morning services on Sunday, June 12, at 8:30 and 11:00.

Draw the Circle Wide, a familiar anthem of unity for all people, all cultures and all generations came to mind on Wednesday as Charles, David, Andrew, and I attended the sweetest reception given at Wesley Woods in honor of three of us “graduating” and one beginning. As many of you know, Wesley Woods is rich in residents who “belong” to Newnan FUMC, some of the kindest, friendliest, full of life and always up for some words of wisdom, people I know. And not to mention the beauty and grace of those lovely women and loving men. The area where we met was so bright, beautifully appointed with round tables covered with sparkling white linens and comfortable chairs for all to rest so we could visit. As we were greeted and began visiting with the early arrivals, more people began to arrive. Soon the one table where we were was not large enough for all, but with ease, each person would simply push their chair back a bit to make room for the new arrivals. And soon, we had more than the 8 people the table was originally meant to have, but no bother, we simply drew the circle wider, and then a bit wider and soon there were two tables included in the circle and ultimately a second row around the circle. People who had been friends, chosen family, life long residents of Coweta County, people who had chosen to move to Coweta County, those who were still here even though the job that brought them here had long been gone into retirement, those who had lost their home in the devastation of the 2021 tornado, but everyone had remained in the circle, it just got wider. There was a genuine sweetness and love. Many of these people were the first I met in 1999 when I came on staff to help develop the early service choir and be an associate for David.

The years have gone quickly. As I come to my second retirement, the first being in 2010 from Newnan High School, I cherish the circles that have been drawn around me, the ones opened up to make a space for me and teach me. My time with the music ministry at FUMC has been rewarding in ways that I can’t even begin to express. I’ll still be around, but now it’s time to draw the circle wider, still. Thank you!

Let this be our song, no one stands alone,
Standing side by side,
Draw the Circle Wide.

-Kathy Bizarth

Volunteer Appreciation

For many years, Jeff Williams (along with some other great volunteers), has been responsible for a great deal of the awesome audio quality that we experience every Sunday morning. Jeff's service is gracious and kind and so generous. Whether he is making sure we have batteries for our handheld mics or helping David get everything ready for an amazing choir performance, so much of what Jeff does goes un-thanked and unnoticed by the majority of us. Well, we want to make sure it goes noticed. Jeff - thank you for everything you have done and continue to do. It is truly a ministry and we are so appreciative. We love you!

MARTHA CIRCLE

Thank you Martha Circle! Martha Circle hosted a luncheon for the NFUMC staff. Not only did they provide a delicious meal, their company was enjoyed by the staff during lunch. What a great day for food and fellowship, we really appreciate these wonderful ladies!

MASTERWORKS CHORALE Thank you!

Masterworks Chorale is greatly indebted to the Newnan First United Methodist family for your generous support of our community chorale through use of the building, access to musical instruments, office assistance, performance venue and unending encouragement of our organization. The chorale members, the board of directors and I wish to express our gratitude and thank you for continuing to reach out to the community in so many ways, it is certainly recognized and appreciated by so many organizations and especially The Masterworks Chorale and me.

HISTORIC BIBLE EXHIBIT- Community Opportunity JUNE 5 | NEWNAN FIRST UMC | ANNEX HALL | 3:30pm

Michael Morgan, concert organist for Columbia Theological Seminary and Central Presbyterian Church in Atlanta, possesses one of the largest collections of historic Bibles in private hands.

On June 5, Newnan First United Methodist Church will host Michael Morgan and the "Stars of his Collection" at 3:30pm. Attendees will have a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to see and perhaps even touch the first complete English translation of the Bible by John Wycliffe; The First Printed

English New Testament by William Tyndale and an actual first edition of The King James Bible printed in 1611. Additionally, Mr. Morgan is displaying for one of the few times in its life, a private Bible owned by the last woman executed for witchcraft in the United Kingdom.

Mr. Morgan is to have a presentation starting at 4:00pm with time for questions. Everyone will be able to view up close and personal printed editions of the Wycliff Bible, the Tyndale Scriptures, the Bishops Bible and a first printing of the translation authorized by James the VI of Scotland, James I of England known as the King James Bible.

Michael Morgan's talk about these amazing manuscripts and how he came to acquire them will be a fitting and uplifting conclusion to Southern Lit Fest 2022. Don't miss it.

Special music will be presented by Michael Scott, Joe Arnotti and Todd Stevens.
