JANUARY 2023

JANUARY 1	Matthew 2:13-23
JANUARY 8	Matthew 3:13-17
JANUARY 15	1 Corinthians 1:1-9
JANUARY 22	1 Corinthians 1:10-18
JANUARY 29	1 Corinthians 1:18-31

Brothers and Sisters of NFUMC,

I am writing to you after an incredible Christmas Eve, a beautiful Christmas morning worship service, a brutal Peach Bowl, and a week straight of hanging out with children under the age of 5.

Adair and I spent Christmas with her family (including five nieces and nephews 4 and under) and New Years with mine (one nephew who is 15 months). I've learned a lot about what Christmas looks like before and after kids. Before little children, the holiday season was calm and predictable. I knew what to expect and I had a plan. Now that children are in the picture, predictability has flown out the window. Peace and calm are a thing of the past. 10 years ago, my family time was spent talking about our lives and politics and faith and sports. This Christmas, my family time was spent making faces and weird noises just to try and get a smile out of a 15 month old.

And I wouldn't change any of it!

I experienced in these children a sense of wonder that is part of childhood, I think, and sometimes gets lost after. And their wonder gifted me with a sense of wonder as well. This Christmas, the things I witnessed in these children reminded me that every person I come into contact with started the same way, with the same wonder.

As we enter this new year, I hope I can retain that simple epiphany. I hope I can understand that all of us are seeking just a little bit of wonder. I hope I can be more gracious and kind to those I encounter each day. I hope that I can observe life with a sense of wonder and purity. I pray that I might view life less as a thing to get through and more as something to be experienced. For God is at work in the big things and the little things around us. God is at work in you and has been ever sense you were an infant. And God will continue to move in your life, to sanctify you and strengthen you, to care for you and guide you. Just make sure your eyes and ears are open. Make sure you know how wonderful the world is around us. And be on the lookout.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Grace and Peace,
Andrew

Details for the trip will be forthcoming, but we need to make sure that we have the interest for the trip to be viable. If you are interested in learning more about serving with us in Peru in the Spring, please sign up using the QR code or you can email Connor Bell your name, cell phone number so that we can add you to our interest list! Connor Bell: cbell@newnanfumc.org

"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven."* -Matthew 5:14-16 NRSV

In August of 2022, Rev. Andrew presented a vision to our church council. The vision had three parts, each of which we hope to reach by the end of May 2023:

- To have 50 new family-units (last names) join the church as members.
- To have 5 new adult professions of faith
- For each person in the congregation to invite 5 people to church.

The great news: in 2022, we had 26 new family units join the church! These are all incredible folks, many of whom have already become integral parts of small groups, leadership, and missions here in our congregation. I hope that you will look through the list of names and faces on the following page and pray for them, get to know their faces, and intentionally be in communion with them during this new year.

And... there is still work to be done. So far, we have had 0 adult professions of faith. We are doing a great job with nurturing and walking with fellow disciples, which is crucial and important work and in line with our biblical calling. But where are we inviting people into discipleship?

When was the last time you invited someone to church? Have you talked with someone about a sermon you heard, a hymn that has been on repeat in your head, a book that your Sunday school class just started? Do we have a ministry at the church that you think a friend's gifts would align with, or something that would help meet a need they have? A mission project they can join in on? All of this serves as an invitation, revolving around the good news of Jesus Christ.

Your evangelism task in January is this: talk to one person who is not in our church about our church and Jesus. What are their feelings about church in general? What do they struggle with regarding church and the Christian faith, and what do they admire about it? What do you love about our church that you would love for them to experience?

No, you don't have to have all the answers. And yes, it may be uncomfortable. If I'm honest, it makes me uncomfortable sometimes.

But that's good. Discomfort is where we grow, and where we rely on God the most. These conversations open the door for the good news to be shared and to grow, both for others and for ourselves.

Yours in Christ,
Connor Bell, Associate Pastor

MISSION SUNDAY | SUNDAY, JANUARY 22, 2023

Small personal-size boxes of cereal, juice boxes, packaged granola bars & fruit cups. These are for the children's bags that they give out weekly. These items can be dropped off in the gathering room or brought to the Sanctuary on the 22nd to pray over the recipients.

JOY TREE

We would like to thank the members of Newnan FUMC for the outpouring of love and generous support for this year's mission with the Joy Tree. The Joy Tree helped to serve the needs of 108 children in the foster care system with 216 full bags of gifts.

Ms. Frances, with help, picked up all of the gifts on December 15 and will distribute them to all of the children. We had a great time serving this mission for the church.

-Kathy Ferguson & Linda McCurdy

SPECIAL OFFERING FROM O HOLY NIGHT

We are so grateful for all of our musicians, singers, and worshipers who attended O Holy Night services on Sunday, December 4th. Through your generous giving at these services, we collected $2500 to donate to the Newnan Emergency Shelter Team (NEST). This organization partners with local churches in downtown Newnan to provide a warm place to sleep and meals for our neighbors who are homeless on nights when the temperature drops below 35 degrees Fahrenheit.

The NEST is always in need of volunteers, and we would love to have more folks from our church get involved with their mission. If you are interested in learning more about volunteering, you can email Pastor Connor at cbell@newnanfumc.org or sign up for our interest list with this QR Code.

The Covers of Love project offers an incredible gift to our patients. The blankets are a meaningful reminder of an incredible community that supports our patients and caregivers on their cancer journey. They serve as a tangible reminder of the loving support offered by those who make the blankets. Cancer Treatment Centers of America is honored to be the recipients of these gifts."

Bonnie Krider, Interim Minister of Music | bonniekrider@gmail.com | 770.253.7400x205

O Holy Night

To my Dear Church,

I want to send my heartfelt "thank yous for an absolutely stunning Advent season. Your generosity of time, talents, and resources continues to blow me away! It has been wildly busy, but each event has been full of love and beautiful music. I could never dream of accomplishing any of it without my village - our church.

Thank you to my choir members (and their drivers) for your attendance and participation in rehearsals. Your consistency and steadfastness make it a JOY to come and make music with you every week.

Thank you to my volunteers and "choir moms" who keep the logistics flowing whether or not I am there - moving people, feeding people, robe-ing people, organizing music, scheduling, emailing, double checking, and always asking the right questions to make sure no detail goes unnoticed.

Thank you to the talented directors and pianists - Dee Nixon, Kathy Roberts, Lynn McKibbin, Emily Carnes, Julie Perkins, and Jeri Burnette - who give their musical talents and so much more!

Thank you to Dawn McCord for her incredible talent and ever energetic and creative thought process. Thanks for being a HUGE part of this team and having wisdom, advice, and fresh ideas every day!

Thank you to our Newnan FUMC staff for always supporting and jumping in with your individual skills and talents when I needed it.

Thank you to our beautiful congregation that continuously feeds genuine words of affirmation and appreciation after each and every song - I hear them ALL! We pray that our choirs can be a mouthpiece for God's word, that these songs would bring you closer to Him with each listen.

Soli Deo Gloria - To God Alone

Bonnie

We have had a busy and exciting fall semester in UTH @ Newnan First UMC. Our confirmation course is going strong! We have 16 students working through their faith and Methodism together, 13 of which attended Confirmation Retreat, strengthening their faith and bonds with one another.

Our Prayer Breakfast has evolved into Biscuits & Bibles: Wednesdays mornings before school to work through the bible and our faith together. This semester we primarily worked through the book of Romans, but finished the Semester with a youth focused advent devotional that took us through December 24.

Sunday Nights were great as well. The Bound worship team added new members who led alongside our students who had been serving for multiple years. We talked about friends, family, and the Bible this semester, and we got a ton out of our time together. Fall Retreat was a great moment in our ministry this year: 25 students learned about their YOU Effect, the impact one person can have, rippling out into their small groups, their communities, and the world. While we learned a lot, we also had a lot of fun; we hosted a bunch of fellowship oriented events as well: Bite Nite, Whiffle Ball Worship, Bags of Hope/Holy Ghost Marshmallow Roast Night, UTH Christmas Party.

We have an even more exciting Spring planned, and we are so excited to be in ministry here at Newnan First UMC, sharing the love of Christ with each and every student we come across!

- Paul

Upcoming Events for January:

- January 8: First UTH- Game Night Kickoff
- January 11: Biscuits & Bible returns at Truett's Chick-fil-A

Andrea Stuart, Director of Children's Ministries | astuart@newnanfumc.org | 770.253.7400 (x209)

Tis the reason for all of the seasons! January will be no different! We have had a wonderful December! O Holy Night, Pageant, Happy Birthday Jesus Party, Root345, Sunday School, Children's Worship! It has been jammed packed full of fun! We will start this 2023 year with love and joy in our hearts, knowing that Jesus loves us and will always be near! It is the wisdom that the Lord brings that helps us to grow closer to Him!

In Sunday School and ROOT 345, we will continue to talk about Jesus's birth to start off the month. I cannot think of a better place to start than when the wise men visit baby Jesus. We can then talk about Jesus's gift as a boy as he spoke in the temple. We won't want you to miss Jesus's baptism, times he was tempted, and when John the Baptist was in prison! This month's verse comes from Proverbs 2:6 - The Lord gives wisdom. Knowledge and understanding come from his mouth. We can trust that when we choose to learn something new we can be better at doing the things we do. We will focus this month on encouraging each other to never stop searching for what is true and making wise choices. Please come and join us as we grow closer to God!

Children's Church is always a great way to praise while we wiggle! I cannot wait to dive into the lessons this month. If you need a place to visit while your children are in Sunday School, or just want to talk to others, adults are welcome to join Chill and Chat in the Gathering Room during Sunday School Hour! There are donuts and drinks available! Come visit our ministry!
