

THE NEWNAN FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SHEPHERD

SEPTEMBER 2023

Friends and Family of NFUMC,

I recently spoke to our Church Council and I outlined my hope and vision for the year. If you remember from last year, I hoped that we would: add 50 new families to our church, see 5 adult professions of faith, and that all of you might invite 5 people to church.

Well friends, you have risen to the challenge and we have indeed added many new and wonderful families to our flock. We have seen our community grow and change and include many from all different backgrounds. And for that I say thanks be to God!

During my time with the church council, I asked everyone in the room to raise their hand if they had invited someone to church this past year. Everybody raised their hands! I'm sure many of you have invited folks as well. And because of that, because of your invitational spirit, we have welcomed many into this church. I am so grateful that people feel at home in this community. You are doing something right! I am reminded of the verse in Hebrews:

Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it. Hebrews 13:2

Now that I know that we can add to the flock and invite people to church, I want to encourage you to continue to invite people! But I also want to extend a new challenge. The challenge begins with our theme verse for August and for the year, Micah 6:8: And what does the Lord require of you, but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.

In the coming year we will no doubt face challenges. Our community, our church, our country, and our world will all encounter some forms of conflict and hardship. Whatever comes, may you be just, kind, and humble in all that you say and do. Whether in joy or pain, in the highs and lows, may those values of justice, kindness, and humility take hold of you and shape you more and more into a disciple who walks closely with Jesus.

That is my prayer and that is my challenge for this year. Be just. Be kind. And be humble!

*Grace and Peace,
Andrew*

NEWNAN FIRST UMC MISSIONS

NEWNANFUMC.ORG/MISSIONS

August 12th-20th, we had 14 members from our church fly to Guatemala to serve a local nonprofit organization focused on the health and wellness of the indigenous Mayan community. Working with rebar, concrete, and elbow grease, this team helped facilitate the construction of a basketball/soccer court for a rural community near the city of Panajachel. God's spirit was at work in this community and in our hearts as we worked. We are so thankful for those who partnered with us in prayer and support to make this a wonderful mission trip! - Pastor Connor Bell

On Saturday, August, 26th, NFUMC and Mount Olive UMC participated in the #ServeCoweta event hosted by RiverLife. We assisted with yard clean-up, building a deck, taking treats to our first responders, serving breakfast and a chainsaw event. It was a great event in which we assisted our community. Thank you to everyone who came out to love our community.

NEWNAN FIRST UMC MUSIC MINISTRY

Caitlyn Dixon, Minister of Music | cdixon@newnanfumc.org | 770.253.7400 x205

Hello all!

Back to school also means back to choir. It is going to be a great year of music-making for all of our ensembles. We are overjoyed to have all choirs back in full swing within the next couple of weeks as Joybells and Inspirations resume on September 11th.

Youth Choir has been off to a great start - I am so grateful to them and to Bonnie for being ready to sing so early in August. It was great to have them back as part of the service. The children's groups have been doing great work, and we're excited to hear them in services soon. Chancel Choir has already begun preparations for our music for Christmas Lessons and Carols on December 17th. I cannot wait to share that music with all of you. It is sure to be a special moment for music in the church this year.

I am especially excited to announce the launch of a new ensemble for this year on September 12th. Celebration Singers will be our new, multigenerational daytime choir. We will meet on Tuesdays starting with fellowship at 9:30 a.m. We will then rehearse from 9:45-10:30 a.m. If you're someone who loves to sing, but struggles with the evening commitments or weekly performance commitment of Chancel Choir, this is the place for you. Celebration Singers will be a fellowship-driven ensemble that will sing in services on a once-a-month basis. This group will also be outreach-driven in the future, with trips to nursing homes and other similar places to share the glory of God through music. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me. I hope to see you for our first gathering on September 12th!

On a personal note, I want to thank all of you for your continued kindness. I have now been in Newnan for a few months and I have to say, I love it here. Your hospitality and welcome have been such a big part in that. It speaks volumes to the work of the Holy Spirit in this church, and I cannot wait to see what the future holds.

Soli Deo Gloria,
Caitie

We had a great launch to the school year! Between Back to School Bash on August 6 and Bite Nite on August 13, we had an action packed start! Bite Nite '23 was so much fun, and it was a blast seeing all 85 of those students running around and accomplishing all those silly tasks! Congrats to our Sixth Grade Girls who won Bite Nite this year! Then on August 20 we met with parents and began our first study series of the year: Habits. —Paul Mosley

HABITS

UTH Series: Habits People talk about “loving God” all the time, but there’s one problem that nobody seems to mention: you can’t see Him. Weird, right? How do you connect to someone who never seems to audibly respond? In this series, we’ll be talking about the faith habits that make it possible to connect with an invisible God. And while there’s no formula for knowing everything about God, there are key habits that will change the way we see Him at work all around you.

FRIENDSHIP COMMITTEE MINISTRY | Meeting: September 19, 10:30AM | Annex Hall

Newnan First provides a ministry to our homebound members through personal cards and notes, phone calls and, when possible, visitations. A kind word or thought shared in a card brightens one's day and brings a smile and the joy of knowing that they are being thought of. This special care is essential for our homebound members to know that they are not forgotten. This ministry is always in need of volunteers. Currently there are 43 friends on the list. Each committee member takes 2-4 friends to keep in contact with. The committee meets twice a year to gather together, reminding each other why we do what we do, to share updated information of their contacts and to receive an updated list of the shut-ins.

New members are always welcome to serve on this committee. If you want to volunteer or if you know of someone who should be contacted through this ministry, you may contact Karen Oothoudt, chairperson of the committee. Before a person is placed on the contact list, they, or sometimes a family member, are contacted first.

The next meeting is Tuesday, September 19 at 10:30 in the Annex Hall. We encourage you to come to the meeting or you can call Karen Oothoudt, chairperson of this committee, if you have any questions 770-301-2551.

You, as the giver, get as much enjoyment out of this ministry as do the receivers. ~Karen Oothoudt
